

Become a member of Kantorei Sankt Petri - a high level of musicality, exciting concerts, and inspiring rehearsals!

The Kantorei Sankt Petri is attached to the beautiful Sankt Petri Church in the center of Copenhagen. The choir comprises approximately 30 singers—aged 20 to 60 from various countries—who possess good voices, high musical standards, and a strong sense of community. We generally perform three to four concerts a year, featuring both a cappella programs and performances with orchestra and soloists.

Our conductor, Jonathan Sievers, focuses on developing the choir's sound; during rehearsals, he emphasizes intensive warm-ups and targeted vocal work. He places great importance on performing masterpieces from a wide range of musical eras. He is supported in this work by singer Oksana Lubova, who provides vocal coaching during choir rehearsals at regular intervals. In addition to the Tuesday rehearsals, many choir members further develop their voices through individual singing lessons.

The rehearsal schedule usually includes a Saturday session dedicated to deepening our understanding of the repertoire with rehearsals. Furthermore, we go on an annual rehearsal weekend in Haslev. Prospective members arrange an audition after attending for about two to three weeks. The membership fee is currently 500 DKK per year.

Rehearsals: Tuesdays, between 7 pm and 9:30 pm
